

Mad Rock Phoenix Climbing Shoe (CS)

Description

The Mad Rock Phoenix is a classic rock shoe, reborn with Mad Technology. A traditionally styled shoe with lacing all the way to the toes, the Phoenix is supportive for edging, and performs exceptionally on cracks, multi-pitches, and trad routes. With its comfort, ability to fit a wide variety of feet and built to last quality, the Phoenix is ideal for climbers looking for an excellent performance-to-comfort ratio in a climbing shoe.

Kong Magic Climbing Helmet (CH-K)

Description

Keep your head safe while you're out climbing. This strong, adjustable climbing helmet is made with a PolyCarb shell. It features numerous cooling slots along both sides and to the rear making it well ventilated. Velcro adjustments make sizing the helmet quick and easy. The headlamp retainer is uniquely molded into the helmet instead of metal clips that can get flattened, deformed, or broken off.

'Climbing Magazine' review of this helmet:

"Bottom line: Kudos all the way around. Good for hot weather."
